

General Director Transition Update: as of Sept. 2021

November 2020 - The new Multiply board committed to implement the Task Force recommendation that “Randy Friesen be released as President of Multiply and a new President be sought as the next step in transition.” Randy remained in leadership temporarily as Transitional General Director while a search process was organized.

March 2021 - The posting for a new General Director was made public in March of 2021
April 2021 - Randy’s many years of service with Multiply ended on April 15, 2021. Vic Wiens was appointed to give interim coordination to the Multiply Executive Team and serve as a liaison to the new Multiply board during the search period.

August 2021 - Applications for the position of General Director were received by the personnel committee, and interviews resulted; no suitable candidate was discerned in this search period.

September 2021: Vic Wiens agreed to fill the role of Interim General Director until August of 2022 unless the role is filled earlier. The Multiply Board continues to focus upon matters of governance, communication, and implementation of the Multiply Review Task Force recommendations and continues the search process.
