To ensure their safety, we are using initials or an alias for long–term workers serving in restricted areas. Also, the names of their contacts in country are routinely changed. Please pray for their protection. Ask the Lord of the harvest to continue to show them favor as he works through them to transform communities among the least reached.

Christmas is a time to remember and celebrate Immanuel—the God who is with us and relentlessly pursues us with His love. May we draw close to the marginalized and hurting with the hope and truth of the Gospel and all that God has done for us in Jesus."

The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us. We have seen his glory, the glory of the one and only Son, who came from the Father, full of grace and truth. ~ John 1:14

Please pray for Jesus to move us into new frontiers of trust and abandon for His mission! We also praise God for Kyla, whom we are welcoming back to France to join us in ministry in the new year!"

Please pray for Ralph Quimson, who will be assuming that role in 2027. Praise God for two new house churches in Baguio City, and please pray for ongoing school ministry opportunities that provide biblical counseling and spiritual support to students, parents, and teachers facing the challenges of bullying, self-harm, and violence. 5 SATURDAY | KYLE & DANAE SCHMIDT | UGANDA

"Please pray with us for LifeHouse Church events taking place this month. From December 2 to 5, we expect over 500 children from the neighboring communities to attend the children's camp. Pray that their hearts will be soft to the Gospel, and that they will encounter God's love for them. Then, from December 26 to 31, there will be an evangelistic outreach happening. Pray that strongholds of witchcraft, addiction, deception, and bitterness will fall away as people encounter the true and living God and surrender their lives to Christ the King."

6 SUNDAY | LAVERN PRATT | PANAMA

"The October 7.7 magnitude earthquake and aftershocks left over 2000 homes destroyed, and another 2000 damaged. We are thankful that the House of the Sower was not damaged, but please pray for the Wounaan and Embera whose homes were damaged or destroyed. I am currently in Canada, along with national partner Keruby, treasurer of the church conference and administrator of House of the Sower. Pray for good connections to be made with the local Church on this visit, with Keruby serving as ambassador for the Wounaan Church in Panama."

7 MONDAY | GEORGE & NICOLETA | LITHUANIA

"In November, our teaching and mentorship ministry with students at LCC International University in Lithuania came to an end. Please continue to pray for the salvation of the students who have not yet made a clear decision for Christ: T, M, and P. Through prayer and discernment with Multiply, we see our primary focus will remain the strengthening of young leaders, pastors, and emerging churches in Central Asia. Please continue to pray with us! Pray for clear guidance and open doors. Your prayers are an essential part of our ministry, and we are grateful to have you walking alongside us as we follow His leading."

See, I am doing a new thing! Now it springs up; do you not perceive it? I am making a way in the wilderness and streams in the wasteland. ~ Isaiah 43:19

8 TUESDAY | ROBERT & MARLENE BAERG | MONGOLIA

Pray that the lives of believers would be filled with thanksgiving and that they would be faithful representatives of Christ to their unbelieving families and friends."

Let the message about Christ, in all its richness, fill your lives. Teach and counsel each other with all the wisdom he gives. Sing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs to God with thankful hearts. And whatever you do or say, do it as a representative of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks through him to God the Father. ~ Colossians 3:16-17

9 WEDNESDAY | TABEA KEHLER | BRAZIL

Pray for national partner Tabea Kehler, working alongside Multiply's Regional Team Leader Emerson Cardoso and his team. 10 THURSDAY | ISRAEL & SANDRA CHAVEZ-PLETT | MEXICO

"We are so excited to spend our first Christmas as a family of four, with our new daughter Angela! Pray that the adoption process would move forward smoothly. Pray for us as we continue to walk through many adjustments together, and that this season would be filled with many beautiful, new memories and traditions for all of us. Pray that Angela would grow in her understanding of who Jesus is, and why this season is so important. Praise God for what He is doing in our church family and in the LifePoint community, as people continue to come to know Him. This beautiful season opens many opportunities to share Christ's love, truth, and hope!"

11 FRIDAY | B & A | GLOBAL

12 SATURDAY | ANDRÉ & OLGA PRITZKAU | GERMANY

"On the third Sunday of Advent (December 13), we are planning to have a café event in our neighborhood again. To our surprise, the café owner approached us with the idea to start earlier this time, with the Christmas story, songs, and testimonies happening right during the time when his business is running. We praise God for his openness and ask you to pray for a café full of people whose hearts will be open to the best message we have—Jesus!"

We proclaim to you what we have seen and heard, so that you also may have fellowship with us. And our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son, Jesus Christ. ~1 John 1:3

13 SUNDAY | SEAN | EAST ASIA

"Please pray with us for one of the students upgrading his Bible translation knowledge and skills: he's a translator, church leader, father with small children, and also a student. Thank God with us for this man's deep walk with God, and for his fruitful life—he is so able to contribute to his growing church and to his language community, providing God's Word in a language they can understand. Pray with us for him as he juggles all the requests for his time; pray that he would be able to reply with both a peaceful 'yes,' and a peaceful 'no.' Pray for the mentors who are contributing to his studies, and for Holy Spirit wisdom and guidance."

And so, from the day we heard, we have not ceased to pray for you, asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, so as to walk in a manner worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him: bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God; ~ Colossians 1:9-10

14 MONDAY | REBECCA HIEBERT | THAILAND

"Praise God for Christmas, when it feels like there is a greater openness to the Gospel than any other time in the year! As the churches spend this month sharing the Gospel, we are praying for Holy Spirit to work in people's lives—for those participating in the outreach team for the first time to have boldness and courage to speak boldly, and for those who attend outreaches and hear the Gospel for the first time to have hearts that are open."

When they saw the courage of Peter and John and realized that they were unschooled, ordinary men, they were astonished and they took note that these men had been with Jesus. ~ Acts 4:13

Prepared

CENTRAL ASIA | By George D

Dear friends, do not be surprised at the fiery ordeal that has come on you to test you, as though something strange were happening to you. ~ 1 Peter 4:12

As the car came to a stop, the brother beside me turned and quietly said, "If you walk through these gates, be prepared."

We were about to enter a local house church, hoping to encourage our brothers and sisters through stories, prayer, and friendship. It was a small community of courageous Central Asian believers—no stage, no signage, no public recognition—only men and women ready to follow Jesus, whatever the cost.

For a brief moment, those plain grey gates carried a weight far beyond their appearance. They reminded me of another time, behind the Iron Curtain, when believers also gathered quietly, knowing that following Christ could come at a cost.

The Gospel has always found a way across borders guarded by fear.

Soon, we would be spending two weeks with a team in the Pamir mountains, visiting other remote villages where the Gospel has yet to be preached, and every conversation matters. Those high mountain roads—reaching almost 4,800 meters—are surrounded by endless peaks and valleys. The terrain would be rough, the air thin, the distances great, and the opposition real.

Was I prepared?

"Make sure you understand the risk," the brother continued, as we got out of the car and stood in front of the gates. "If the police come, you could be questioned and deported. Are you ready?"

I hoped so.

Beyond these gates we would meet pastors from a network of ten churches; brave young men who, despite having no formal theological education, carry a deep passion to make Jesus known in a society shaped by Islam and traditional beliefs, hostile to the Gospel.

As we walked through the gates, I realized something. Believers in Central Asia understand that there is no growth without risk. Their courage is not the absence of fear; it is a quiet decision to be prepared.

Pray for George and Nicoleta, launching into mission in Central Asia from their new base in North America.

All Who Are Thirsty

BRAZIL | By Franz Wolf

Angela and her husband are missionaries with our partner MB mission agency in Brazil. Since launching into ministry, their prayer has been for courage to proclaim the Gospel, grace to love everyone they encounter, and the power of God to help those in need.

The answer to their prayer has literally been saving lives.

In the Rio Grande do Norte state, a recent dry season left those living in the backcountry especially vulnerable, with some waiting more than two months for a water tanker to come and fill their cisterns. With almost nothing to drink, cook with, or use for farming while they waited, villagers would comment cynically that their government was doing nothing.

"We had to do something," said Angela. "God wants to care for people through us, His Church."

With support from the mission agency, a 120-meter well was dug, with an above-ground water storage tank, and the surrounding communities were invited to bring their containers to be filled up. It is not just the containers that are filled; people coming to well are also being filled with the hope of the Gospel.

The well was dubbed the Beersheba Well. "In Genesis 26," she explained, "Abraham's son, Isaac, goes to live in the land of the Philistines during a drought, much like the one we have been experiencing. Isaac found that all the wells his father had dug had been filled up with dirt by the Philistines. So, he reopened those wells—and then went on to dig some new ones!"

Years later, the biblical Beersheba became a place where people encountered God personally. Isaac and Jacob both heard from God in dreams there (Genesis 26:24; 46:2), and Hagar and Elijah were both in Beersheba when God spoke to them (Genesis 21:17; 1 Kings 19:5).

Like the well in the Bible, the Beersheba Well in Brazil has now become not only a community gathering place, but a place to encounter God.

"One woman came with her grandson," Angela related. "While the boy was fetching water, I told her the story in John 14—the Samaritan woman who meets Jesus at a well. After you drink this water, you will be thirsty again, I told her. But whoever drinks the Living Water that Jesus gives will never thirst again!" The woman was deeply moved, raising her hands to the heavens and thanking God.

Pray for the people of Rio Grande do Norte to drink deeply at the well of salvation.

Anoint the local believers and evangelists in Thailand, Myanmar, Laos, Bangladesh, Philippines and Japan, who will share this message of hope. Give the house churches a clear strategy for follow up so that many strong disciples of Jesus and many new house churches will be the fruit of this happy season of sowing Gospel seed. Amen!"

21 MONDAY | TOMAS & MELODY VIDAL | MEXICO

After Christmas, I'll be serving again at the Vision Conference with an organization called Bridges International. I'll be helping with the Children of Abraham track, which brings together international students from Muslim-background nations to have conversations around Jesus, Scripture, faith, and discipleship. Please pray for wisdom, sensitivity to the Holy Spirit, and open hearts among the students at this conference."

Praise God for three people who previously served on the ALPHA team who stepped up to lead these new courses—a beautiful picture of discipleship multiplying. Please pray as 180° Church moves towards a new mission in Silute, a town of nearly 15,000 people. We see an opportunity for renewal for one of the Free Christian churches there, which has been faithful for over thirty years. Please pray for Oleksii and Evelina Novosad, taking a key role in this mission."

Whether you turn to the right or to the left, your ears will hear a voice behind you, saying, "This is the way; walk in it." ~ Isaiah 30:21

31 THURSDAY | RUSS & MARJORIE | FRANCE

"Our region has seen some demonstrations with violence (rocks thrown, tear gas, etc.). These demonstrations started with high school students being frustrated about the state of school infrastructure and education in the country, but once they started demonstrating, they were joined by other groups who piled on with general frustrations about the cost of living and the state of the economy in France. Pray that these events will provide opportunities for the Gospel to shine, and for believers to be bold in stepping up to share where their hope lies. The only sure object of our hope and trust is God, and not any government."

I urge, then, first of all, that petitions, prayers, intercession and thanksgiving be made for all people—for kings and all those in authority, that we may live peaceful and quiet lives in all godliness and holiness. ~ 1 Timothy 2:1, 2

REGIONAL SPOTLIGHT:

Central & South America

Emerson Cardoso
Regional Team Leader

With hundreds of distinct ethnic groups coming from a variety of vibrant and rich cultural ancestries, Central & South America is one of the most diverse regions in the world. Many countries, however, have struggled historically against corruption, violence, drug cartels, and human rights violations. In these places, a holistic ministry is crucial, communicating the Gospel among the marginalized of urban society and indigenous people groups facing poverty, religiosity and animistic beliefs.

Multiply workers are serving in Latin America (Colombia, Mexico, Panama, Peru, Brazil) and Lusophone (Portuguese speaking) countries in Europe and Africa, including Portugal, Mozambique and Angola. A multi-regional team, under the direction of Regional Team Leader Emerson Cardoso, networks together with global MB churches and training institutions such as AMCOBIM (MB Mission Agency of Brazil), HEME AQUÍ (MB Mission Agency of Colombia), and Matthew Training Center (Multiply's discipleship training center in Mexico) to reach the lost and to equip missional leaders in Latin America and beyond.

Pray

- For countries ravaged by violent political conflict and drug wars
- For unity to be built between the local churches of each MB conference
- For young leaders being discipled for evangelism and church planting
- For indigenous leaders being trained to reach their own people groups
- For Regional Team Leader Emerson Cardoso
