

Daily Prayer Guide

— JULY 2026 —

Pray also for me, that whenever I speak, words may be given me so that I will fearlessly make known the mystery of the Gospel, for which I am an ambassador in chains. Pray that I may declare it fearlessly, as I should. ~ Ephesians 6:19, 20

To ensure their safety, we are using initials or an alias for long-term workers serving in restricted areas. Also, the names of their contacts in country are routinely changed. Please pray for their protection. Ask the Lord of the harvest to continue to show them favor as he works through them to transform communities among the least reached.

1 WEDNESDAY: CARMEN OWEN | THAILAND

Pray for Carmen, partnering with national leaders Siriwan and Wichian Trakunhan to oversee the many ministries of Naomi House, a community church plant and social enterprise serving marginalized families in Chiang Mai. Naomi House also provides sustainable livelihoods for families that are disciplined through their ministries.

Suppose one of you has a hundred sheep and loses one of them. Doesn't he leave the ninety-nine in the open country and go after the lost sheep until he finds it?
~ Luke 15:4

2 THURSDAY: JEN SCHMIDT | MEXICO

"I've been back in Canada for only a few weeks now—it still feels surreal, after almost twenty-one years at the Matthew Training Center in Mexico. I am currently on an extended sabbatical in Manitoba; please pray for rest, restoration, and refocus as I discern the future. Pray for me as I am grieving this farewell to Mexico, and my life and ministry there."

And after you have suffered a little while, the God of all grace, who has called you to his eternal glory in Christ, will himself restore, confirm, strengthen, and establish you. ~ 1 Peter 5:10

3 FRIDAY: JOHN & JENN JOHNSTONE | CANADA

"Please pray as we continue to offer prayer, accountability, and presence to those navigating addiction and other challenges, often mental health (including depression or PTSD). These moments often open the door to deeper connection, prayer and transformation. Pray also as we invest in the lives of First Nations youth and young adults in the Downtown Eastside of Vancouver, partnering with Inner Hope Youth Ministries. Over this past year, we've opened our home on a quarterly basis to create space for connection and reflection, an opportunity for the young adults and youth to step away from the busyness of the city for a few days and simply be. These gatherings have been filled with laughter, times in nature, honest conversations, and meaningful moments that we truly, truly treasure."

Be wise in the way you act toward outsiders; make the most of every opportunity. Let your conversation be always full of grace, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how to answer everyone. ~ Colossians 4:5, 6

4 SATURDAY: FRANZ WOLF | BRAZIL

Franz serves as Multiply's coordinator for the multi-regional Latin American Expansion Team, partnering together to reach the lost and equip missional leaders in Latin America and Lusophone (Portuguese-speaking) countries. Pray for this team to create effective strategies for ministry in each country, and for Franz's work with the Brazilian MB mission agency, and its mission training schools.

Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.
~ Matthew 28:19, 20

5 SUNDAY: PABLO & MARICELA CHAVEZ | PERU

"Please pray for the weekly women's group. It has been life-giving to me (Maricela) and opened up the space for the women to share their struggles and their heart's desire for peace and joy in their lives, and in their shared home. Pray that they receive the one and only who can give them that lasting peace and joy: Jesus. Pray for continued grace and favor with the churches and the new conference board, for our son Isaac as he adjusts to college life and looks for a car, and for God's guidance, flexibility, and courage for us all!"

You will make known to me the path of life; in your presence is fullness of joy, in your right hand there are pleasures forever. ~ Psalm 16:11

6 MONDAY: MAXYM & ANYA OLIFEROVSKI | UKRAINE

"Please pray for our summer camps that will be led by a number of MB churches during this warmer season. Pray for kids and adults to be renewed and recover in physical, mental and spiritual strength. Continue to pray for ministry to men in Ukraine, especially veterans and soldiers. Pray for their families; that God protects them and keeps them safe. And please—continue to pray for the war to end and for peace in this country."

I have told you these things, so that in me you may have peace. In this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world. ~ John 16:33

7 TUESDAY: RICK & KAREN SAWATZKY | LITHUANIA

Pray for this couple, partnering with two churches in Vilnius. Pray as they gather people in their home for book studies, Bible studies, and prayer. As they are meeting more people from a Muslim background, pray for their conversations about life and faith. Pray that many would come to faith in Christ despite the challenges of being in a secular country formerly under communist rule; many are atheists, or nominal members of the established church, or just trying to survive economically.

Let us not give up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching.
~ Hebrews 10:25

8 WEDNESDAY: A & R | EUROPE & CENTRAL ASIA

Having been denied a visa after serving since 2012, this couple is now based off the coast of their previous target country, serving church planting initiatives among the Turkish-speaking diaspora, hosting global workers and national pastors, and raising up national church leaders to reach the Muslim people group with the good news of Jesus Christ.

He who receives you receives me, and he who receives me receives him who sent me. ~ Matthew 10:40

9 THURSDAY: ANDREW B | NORTH AFRICA & MIDDLE EAST

“I have concluded my training and service with Multiply and am now working with an urban mission organization in Houston, connecting with a local refugee church of first-generation immigrants. Please pray for wisdom and faithfulness as I step into my role, which involves communication, discipleship, and cross-cultural ministry; I want to serve with both humility and clarity. Pray for doors to open for me to share the hope of Christ with Muslims in this city, and beyond.”

Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles. And let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us, fixing our eyes on Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of faith. ~ Hebrews 12: 1, 2

10 FRIDAY: AURÉLIE HIRSCHLER | BURUNDI

“July 8 is the end of the school year, and therefore time for goodbyes for staff and students. It is also the dry season—a time when it is harder to get food and water. Please pray for our students and their families to stay healthy and alive by respectful means, and not by stealing from someone else’s field. Please also pray for a Spirit-led recruiting time for the new staff for September, and that the new teachers would fear God and love their students in words and in actions. Amen!”

He turned the desert into pools of water and the parched ground into flowing springs; there he brought the hungry to live, and they founded a city where they could settle. They sowed fields and planted vineyards that yielded a fruitful harvest... ~ Psalm 107:35-37

11 SATURDAY: WANCHAI \(OZZ\) & SARA FAST KUMROD | THAILAND

“Please join us in praying for our camp for interns, from July 25 to 27. The Thai MB conference facilitates this camp for church planters and those who are faithfully making Jesus known in different communities, bringing them together for training and encouragement. Please pray also for our family, as we are moving into a new house this month. We thank God that we will have more space for our growing boys and for welcoming neighbors into our home. Please pray for God’s provision and wisdom as we move, and that we can witness to the landlord and her family about Jesus.”

And my God will meet all your needs according to the riches of his glory in Christ Jesus. ~ Philippians 4:19

12 SUNDAY: JAN H | MIDDLE EAST & NORTH AFRICA

Pray for Jan, serving in various capacities as part of Multiply’s River of Life team, supporting key national ministry leaders from this region. Jan is passionate about inviting Muslims to experience the love and truth of Jesus through relational evangelism and discipleship.

Come and listen, all you who fear God; let me tell you what he has done for me... Praise be to God, who has not rejected my prayer or withheld his love from me! ~ Psalm 66:16, 20

13 MONDAY: SEAN & AMY HILDEBRAND | UGANDA

“Praise God for lining up our newborn’s passport and visa in the nick of time, so that we could make our return flight to Uganda! Please pray that He would give us patience and grace as we seek to establish new family, work, and ministry rhythms—as a family of four, now—in a country that we are still acclimating to.”

For the Lord is good and his love endures forever; his faithfulness continues through all generations. ~ Psalm 100:5

14 TUESDAY: DANNY & CYNTHIA ASIRIT | THE PHILIPPINES

“Praise God for a recent trip up into the mountains to visit an indigenous people group, bringing Bibles, children’s clothes, and handmade dolls lovingly prepared by the Willingdon Church family in Canada. Each gift carried practical value and a message of God’s love. Pray for spiritual healing and growth among the people being discipled, especially the indigenous communities and children being reached.”

Jesus said, “Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these.” ~ Matthew 19:14

15 WEDNESDAY: DENIS & ALBINA NIKITIN | CANADA

Denis & Albina Nikitin are reaching Ukrainian and Slavic newcomers with the good news of Jesus. As a couple, they have vision to help isolated individuals,

My Right Hand

GERMANY / By Heinz Quiering

I was born without a right hand. It has not bothered me much; I have been able to adapt and compensate well. Still, it is not easy to live without this limb.

Recently, I found a Bible verse card on my bookshelf—one that I had received during a church week of prayer ten years ago. The verse was Psalm 73:23: “Yet I am always with You; You hold me by my right hand.”

It felt a little ironic, at the time.

Sometime later, I attended a gathering of the global MB family, ICOMB, in Malawi. It was a tremendous event, and a great blessing. On the way back to Germany, my colleague and I had a stopover at the airport in Addis Ababa. While we were there, we met with another couple who had also attended the ICOMB gathering, as representatives of our North American mission agency, Multiply.

The conversation turned, of course, to our Lord. All four of us felt moved to encourage one another in our faith, and to pray for one another. Then the sister looked up.

“I feel,” she told me, “that we are supposed to pray for you—to pray Psalm 73 over you.” Then she began to speak over me, paraphrasing words from the psalm.

“He is always with you,” she told me. “God holds you by your right hand. He guides you with his counsel, and afterward He will take you into glory. Whom have you in heaven but Him? And earth has nothing worth desiring, besides Him. Your flesh and your heart may fail, but God is the strength of your heart, and your portion forever.”

Hand or no hand, it was not for me to hold onto Him, but for Him to hold onto me ... It was a completely one-sided promise.

At first, while she spoke these words, she held my left hand. Then, realizing that this verse was about the right hand, she reached out her two hands and gently grasped my right forearm—where no hand exists. I was deeply moved.

Our flights were called, and we parted ways, but I continued to ponder these words for many months.

Then, the words came to me again. I was attending a prayer seminar where participants were being encouraged to listen for God’s response. As we did this, someone had a strong impression for me.

They told me, “God says, ‘I gave you a firm word! Remember what I have already promised you!’”

It was not clear to me, then, what the Lord meant.

A few weeks later, during my Bible reading, I returned to Psalm 73. As I came to verse 23, I remembered the incident at the Addis Ababa airport. God was speaking this verse to me, again! Why?

“Lord, You say that You are holding my right hand,” I said, “but I have no way to grasp Your hand!”

Suddenly, something became clear: Hand or no hand, it was not for me to hold onto Him, but for Him to hold onto me. I needed to trust Him to hold onto me, and that was exactly what He was promising. It was a completely one-sided promise.

I spent months trying to process this revelation in my heart. Then, one morning, a brother from Uganda messaged me with a verse—Isaiah 41:13. It said, “For I, the Lord your God, will take hold of your right hand and say to you, ‘Do not be afraid, I will help you.’”

At that moment I felt such a strong surge of desire to know God—more closely and intensively than ever before.

It is not always easy; please pray for me.

and families integrate not only into their new culture, but into a multi-ethnic church plant of Slavic, Ukrainian and established Canadian families in Winnipeg.

Who is like you, Lord God Almighty? You, Lord, are mighty, and your faithfulness surrounds you. ~ Psalm 89:8

16 THURSDAY: ELEAZAR & SHAILA DIAZ-ORTIZ | MEXICO

“From July 20 to 24 we will be running a summer vacation Bible school (VBS). Last year was great—we had over sixty kids—and we are excited for this year. Please pray that we can make an impact in the lives of the kids who come, and for opportunities to have meaningful Gospel conversations with the parents. Please pray also for our church. As we are reaching many young families, I believe we are experiencing spiritual opposition. Too many families in our church are battling sickness, financial crises, and marital stress. Please pray for strength and wisdom, that we would be able to point them to Jesus. In the midst of these struggles, may we all experience the miracles of our good Lord.”

All this multitude, too, shall learn that it is not by sword or spear that the Lord saves. For the battle belongs to the Lord... ~ 1 Samuel 17:47a

17 FRIDAY: KYLA SINCLAIR-PETERS | CANADA

“Thank you for your prayers, as we are busy with the summer soccer league! I would love prayer for ongoing connections with kids and families. I am already preparing for our summer camp in August; pray for all the details to come together, for youth to sign up, and for wisdom as we plan the Discovery Bible Study lessons.”

The Spirit and the bride say, “Come!” And let the one who hears say, “Come!” Let the one who is thirsty come; and let the one who wishes take the free gift of the water of life. ~ Revelation 22:17

18 SATURDAY: TRAVIS JOST | BURUNDI

“The Ebola outbreak in Uganda and Congo has not yet arrived in Burundi. In recent years, borders have been closed; perhaps an unintended result is that this is protecting Burundi from an outbreak. Burundi is already a tough place to live, with many hardships. Adding Ebola to the mix would be crushing to the people. Pray for their health to be protected and their immune systems to be strong. Pray also for good information on hygiene to reach the people, and for governments and health organizations to collaborate and prevent further spreading of the disease.”

He has delivered us from such a deadly peril, and he will deliver us again. On him we have set our hope that he will continue to deliver us, as you help us by your prayers. Then many will give thanks on our behalf for the gracious favor granted us in answer to the prayers of many. ~ 2 Corinthians 1:10, 11

19 SUNDAY: SARAH & CHRISTIAN SMUTNY | AUSTRIA

“I (Sarah) am now working again after my twelve weeks of sabbatical, and feeling refreshed. In July, Al Stobbe from Multiply will be coming here to Austria. Together, we will be visiting, encouraging, and serving with the other MB churches! Pray that we will be a blessing to the churches and that good relationships and partnerships will be built. Our church also continues to work through some deep-rooted conflict, and there will be some church-wide mediation meetings throughout the summer. Please pray for humble hearts and open ears to hear God’s voice.”

And he has committed to us the message of reconciliation. We are therefore Christ’s ambassadors, as though God were making his appeal through us. ~ 2 Corinthians 5:19b, 20a

20 MONDAY: GEDIMINAS & KRISTINA DAILYDE | LITHUANIA

Pray for this couple, leading the church plant in Vilnius, a city that is experiencing an increasing number of first-generation Christians. Pray for their Bible studies, marriage classes, and discipleship training initiatives, and for the ongoing relief work among Ukrainian refugees in this country.

“Whoever drinks the water I give them will never thirst. Indeed, the water I give them will become in them a spring of water welling up to eternal life.” ~ John 4:14

21 TUESDAY: JEREMY & ADRIENNE PENNER | THAILAND

“We have been traveling all over Canada for the past four months, speaking and sharing testimonies of what God is doing in Southeast Asia. We are so grateful for the many hundreds of faithful friends we spent time with! And now, after so long away, praise God that we are finally back in Thailand. Please pray for our team as we work together to multiply disciple makers in every community.”

The Lord is righteous in all his ways and kind in all his deeds. The Lord is near to all who call upon him, to all who call upon him in truth. ~ Psalm 145:17, 18 (NASB)

22 WEDNESDAY: DAVID & SARAH | SOUTH ASIA

Pray for David, Multiply’s Regional Team Leader for South Asia, as he resources global MB conferences and emerging church networks through the Missional Leadership Training resource. Pray for Sarah, as she provides trauma healing training and serves as a Diaspora Consultant in Canada.

All the ends of the earth will remember and turn to the Lord, and all the families of the nations will bow down before him. ~ Psalm 22:27

23 THURSDAY: JOHANN MATTHIES | EUROPE

Praise God for the fruit of a recent regional gathering of the global MB family (ICOMB), hosted in Poland. Please pray for the ongoing mobilizing of European partners, churches, and schools for world mission, and resourcing of Multiply workers and projects within Europe and Central Asia.

Yes, in the way of your judgments, O Lord, we have waited for you; the desire of our soul is for your name and for the remembrance of you. ~ Isaiah 26:8 (NKJV)

24 FRIDAY: EINER & GIRLESA ZULUAGA | PANAMA

“Please pray for our leaders in Panama; we are noticing signs of stress and exhaustion among them, and we are concerned. Pray also for our Wounaan brothers in the Colombian jungles. Things there are very difficult due to political issues, and terrorist groups are preventing them from moving about freely. We ask for God’s wisdom to know when we should travel to deliver the leadership workshop in this Colombian Chocó region. Please also pray for discernment for whether we should relocate, as a family, in order to support emerging leaders who are more isolated.”

Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths. ~ Proverbs 3:5, 6

25 SATURDAY: MARCELA & DAVID | FRANCE

Marcela and her husband David work alongside a local French church, doing pre-evangelistic activities, evangelism, discipleship, and holistic church planting. They are primarily focused on immigrants from North-Africa and Turkish background people in the area.

Come, you who are blessed by my Father; take your inheritance, the kingdom prepared for you since the creation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in... ~ Matthew 25: 35-37

26 SUNDAY: NATE & KRISTIN | CANADA

Pray for this couple, involved in work and ministry among a people group in northern Ontario, where they seek to build respectful relationships that will bring the good news of Jesus Christ to these communities in ways that heal and restore trust.

Feed the hungry and help those in trouble. Then your light will shine out from the darkness, and the darkness around you will be as bright as noon. ~ Isaiah 58:1

27 MONDAY: CECIL & TRACY RAMOS | THAILAND

“For the first half of July we will be hosting a team from California, then we will be at a retreat for other missionaries in Southeast Asia. After that, we will be packing up to return to North America on July 15 for a season of visiting with friends, family, and ministry supporters. Please pray that we would be filled with energy and love as we share with many churches, small groups, and partners regarding what Jesus is doing in Thailand and around Southeast Asia. We want to inspire a missional heart in the North American Church.”

You know that I have not hesitated to preach anything that would be helpful to you but have taught you publicly and from house to house. I have declared to both Jews and Greeks that they must turn to God in repentance and have faith in our Lord Jesus. ~ Acts 20:20, 21

28 TUESDAY: RUSS & MARJORIE | FRANCE

Praise God for a recent opportunity to be a part of a team using music to support local church planting efforts in Peru. The outreach was centered in Lima, with performances in prisons, parks, and public squares, using music and the creative arts to share the Gospel in difficult and challenging settings. Pray for those who will be doing follow-up in the months ahead.

My heart, O God, is steadfast, my heart is steadfast; I will sing and make music. Awake, my soul! Awake, harp and lyre! I will awaken the dawn. ~ Psalm 57:7, 8

29 WEDNESDAY: ALEX & CARLA SUDERMAN | GERMANY

Pray for the Pickaxe Project, using music, storytelling, and live performances to engage a secular European society in honest dialogue about their hopes, questions, and aspirations, while pointing them to Jesus as the source and fulfillment of humanity’s deepest longings. Pray for the production and impact of their upcoming album, Destiny Trees.

You will go out in joy and be led forth in peace; the mountains and hills will burst into song before you, and all the trees of the field will clap their hands. ~ Isaiah 55: 12

30 THURSDAY: CYNTHIA FRIESEN | THAILAND

Pray for Cynthia, partnering with key national leaders and the Thai MB conference in Chiang Mai to provide support for church planting, discipleship, and the formation of self-sustaining and culturally relevant fellowship groups.

It is written: "Those who were not told about him will see, and those who have not heard will understand." ~ Romans 15:21

31 FRIDAY: CHARLES | NORTH AFRICA & MIDDLE EAST

Pray for Charles, serving as part of the River of Life team, a network of indigenously led ministries across this region. Pray for his training of followers of Jesus through rock climbing expeditions which bring them into contact with Muslims in the Arabian peninsula.

The Lord will guide you always; he will satisfy your needs in a sun-scorched land and will strengthen your frame. You will be like a well-watered garden, like a spring whose waters never fail. ~ Isaiah 58:11

REGIONAL SPOTLIGHT:

Middle East & North Africa

Multiply's relationships and partnerships across the Middle East and North Africa require careful communication because many believers in this region serve in sensitive and restricted contexts. Across the region, local and diaspora believers are sharing the Gospel, discipling new believers, gathering in homes, and strengthening emerging communities of faith, often at significant personal cost.

Nasser al'Qahtani

Serves as a Global Missions Catalyst

God is also opening doors through digital outreach, personal relationships, workplace witness, and small networks of believers who are learning to follow Jesus together in difficult places.

Through the River of Life network, Multiply is able to encourage, connect, and support indigenous and regional leaders as they shepherd believers, equip new disciples, and help local followers of Jesus become witnesses among their own people.

Pray

- > For believers across the Middle East and North Africa who are experiencing rejection, hardship, isolation, surveillance, or persecution because of their faith in Jesus.
- > For local and diaspora leaders who are shepherding house churches, discipling new believers, and helping isolated believers grow in courage, wisdom, and faithfulness.
- > For digital outreach and media ministries that are creating opportunities for seekers to hear the Gospel, ask honest questions, and connect with mature believers.
- > For the River of Life network as it encourages, connects, and supports indigenous and regional leaders serving in sensitive contexts.
- > For Global Missions Catalyst Nasser al'Qahtani as he is strengthening relationships among local and diaspora leaders, encouraging faithful witness, and helping equip believers for ministry across the Middle East, North Africa, and beyond.
