

Daily Prayer Guide

— JUNE 2025 —

O Lord, we have waited for you; the desire of our soul is for your name and for the remembrance of you. ~ Isaiah 26:8b (NKJV)

COVER PHOTO: PERU

Thank you for praying!

Prayer is the foundation of our ministry, which means that you play a vital role in the transformation of lives in mission.

This Daily Prayer Guide is available monthly via email or post. If you would like to subscribe or unsubscribe to this publication, please contact us with your email or mailing address.

pray@multiply.net

604.859.6267

1.866.964.7627

USA: 4867 E. Townsend Avenue, Fresno, CA 93727-5006 USA

CANADA: 300-32040 Downes Road, Abbotsford, BC V4X 1X5 Canada

Our daily prayer requests can also be found on our website:

multiply.net/daily-prayer-guide

To ensure their safety, we are using initials or an alias for long-term workers serving in restricted areas. Also, the names of their contacts in country are routinely changed. Please pray for their protection. Ask the Lord of the harvest to continue to show them favor as he works through them to transform communities among the least reached.

June 1 - 7

1 SUNDAY: MULTIPLY (BRUCE ENNS)

GLOBAL

“Please pray for our global workers and national partners this month, especially those that are connected to your own church. Pray also for the people from all nations that are in your own community, and pray for our North American global workers to reach this nation with the Good News.”

God reigns over the nations; God is seated on his holy throne. The nobles of the nations assemble as the people of the God of Abraham, for the kings of the earth belong to God; he is greatly exalted. ~ Psalm 47:8-9

2 MONDAY: VR

UKRAINE

“Praise God for a recent opportunity to provide interim leadership to a Latino church in Vienna. I also give thanks for my wife’s improved health, and ask for your continued prayers. Please pray for my residence permit application, made last month; may the authorities view this with favor. Pray also for wisdom as I deal with an unexpected issue with my bank account in my home country, and for our ongoing work with refugees here—meeting practical needs as well as sharing the Gospel. A pastor here is sensing God’s inviting him to start a church in the emergency aid tent where we serve!”

Be always on the watch, and pray that you may be able to escape all that is about to happen, and that you may be able to stand before the Son of Man. ~ Luke 21:36

3 TUESDAY: EMERSON CARDOSO

BRAZIL

“Praise God for this time of open doors! About a month ago, we had a group of dear business people come from Canada to spend time with us. During that time we had wonderful communion, and built very encouraging connections. More recently, we had a group of leaders come from Ontario to discern mission together, and God revealed himself in many ways during that time. We had deep times of encouragement and discernment together.”

I know your deeds. See, I have placed before you an open door that no one can shut. ~ Revelation 3:8a

4 WEDNESDAY: ISRAEL & SANDRA CHAVEZ-PLETT

MEXICO

“Pray with us for all the seeds that have been planted in many lives in our LifePoint community recently—through English camp, women’s craft meetings, our thrift store and our church services in the park. Pray that these seeds would find good soil and grow into solid, healthy fruit! Pray especially for Sebastian and Daniela, two of the kids in the neighborhood who have been seeking us out recently. May God raise up a future generation of Christ-followers that transform this community!”

As the rain and the snow come down from heaven, and do not return to it without watering the earth and making it bud and flourish so that it yields seed for the sower and bread for the eater, so is my word that goes out from my mouth: it will not return to me empty, but will accomplish what I desire and achieve the purpose for which I sent it. ~ Isaiah 55:10, 11

5 THURSDAY: B & C

CENTRAL ASIA

“Please pray for the political situation in this country; there have been many demonstrations of protest. Pray for just rulers to rise up, who will guarantee freedom of worship and will seek to improve the conditions of the workers here. As for us, this year we face the challenge of renewing our residency. The best option so far is for our son to enter university studies, which would allow us to obtain residency for the duration of his career. We need much prayer for this process!”

They were glad when it grew calm, and he guided them to their desired haven. ~ Psalm 107:30

6 FRIDAY: ANDRÉ & OLGA PRITZKAU

GERMANY

“Last month, Olga went on a three-day school trip, and both teachers and students came back very tired. Even in this state, she noticed one grade five student, Tom, who needed extra attention, and asked his mom if he could come back to our home for the afternoon. It was the first time that Tom came to our place; we ate, talked and played games together. Before long, we were talking about Jesus! Please pray for Tom and others like him; children whose hearts have been exposed to so much violence, obscenity and abuse.”

The Spirit of the Sovereign Lord is on me, because the Lord has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim freedom for the captives and release from darkness for the prisoners. ~ Isaiah 61:1

7 SATURDAY: LIA

EAST ASIA

“Please pray as I discern future ministry among a marginalized Buddhist people group in East Asia. There have been many encouraging options presented, but also some challenges to walk through. Pray for a family member with serious health concerns, which has resulted in me returning to North America temporarily until this is resolved.”

Stretch out your hand to heal and perform signs and wonders through the name of your holy servant Jesus. ~ Acts 4:30

June 8 - 14

8 SUNDAY: KYLE & DANAE SCHMIDT

UGANDA

“King’s Kid School has been focusing on improving the students’ reading and English proficiency. From June 9-21, a team of teachers from three of our partnering churches is coming alongside this goal by modeling different activities and teaching strategies in the classrooms and helping teachers cultivate a love for reading. Pray for students to grow in passion for reading, and for understanding and applying God’s Word in their life. Pray for wisdom and cultural insight for us to partner well, so that students and teachers feel the love of the Father through this team.”

Start children off on the way they should go, and even when they are old, they will not turn from it. ~ Proverbs 22:6

9 MONDAY: WENDY EROS

JAPAN

“Thank you so much for your many years of prayers and support as I served in Japan. I am preparing to wrap up my service with Multiply on July 31 and I would really appreciate your prayers as I look for suitable and affordable accommodation in Canada, and for wisdom and discernment on where God is leading me next. Pray also for my English students in Japan to remember what they learned over the years in chapel time, and that one day they will seek the Lord. I pray that you will know how much your prayers have sustained me all these years!”

I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who has given me strength, that he considered me trustworthy, appointing me to his service. ~ 1 Timothy 1:12

10 TUESDAY: B & A

GLOBAL

“Please pray for the WithYou discipleship app to successfully be launched this month. Pray for us to have wisdom as we continue with discipling young adults in Vancouver, and pray discernment of additional employment and ministry opportunities.”

Now may the God of peace...equip you with every good thing to do his will. And may he accomplish in us what is pleasing in his sight through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory forever and ever. ~ Hebrews 13:20, 21

11 WEDNESDAY: KAILEE THIESSEN

CANADA

“We are celebrating the work of God in the lives of individuals in the diaspora communities that gather with us. Recently, one of our members made the decision to be baptized! Pray for her, that she would be a faithful witness of God’s love to her unbelieving family members. Pray also for others in our group that they would grow in their discipleship journey and also make decisions to follow Jesus.”

Surely this is our God; we trusted in him, and he saved us. This is the Lord, we trusted in him, let us rejoice and be glad in his salvation. ~ Isaiah 35:9

12 THURSDAY: LAVERN PRATT

PANAMA

“Praise God for the twenty-year partnership between Forest Grove Community Church and the MB Church conference of Panama! I am thankful for God-given strength and endurance for the many activities that happened in the first few months of 2025. What a whirlwind! I am thankful for you all—faithful prayer partners petitioning God for his will to be done; the work in Panama is stronger because of it. Please pray for me and for the wonderful and godly Yaviza team of Obdulio, Alina, Einer, Girsela, Robinson, Ruth, Milda, Keruby, as we work together for God’s glory!”

*How good and pleasant it is, when God’s people live together in unity!
~ Psalm 133:1*

13 FRIDAY: ROBERT & MARLENE BAERG

MONGOLIA

“Thank you for praying for Rob; he is getting stronger by the day. The pain in his chest ended up being some inflammation in his sternum that cleared up. Please pray during these next months for the many youth that will come to summer camps and hear the Gospel for the first time. Pray that they will see the glorious light of this Good News and respond in faith.”

*So faith comes from hearing, that is, hearing the Good News about Christ.
~ Romans 10:17 (NLT)*

14 SATURDAY: GEORGE & NICOLETA

LITHUANIA

“Praise God for L, a student from Armenia and one of our ALPHA table participants. Although her family attends a very religious Armenian Apostolic

When Stars Align

MONGOLIA | By Robert Baerg

I first came across Bob eight years ago, doing an online search into sources for grafting branches. Bob, the owner of a nursery in Idaho, knew a lot about grafting and, it turned out, also knew Jesus. I ended up ordering a bunch of branches from him for our Trees of Life farm.

We emailed back and forth and, at one point, I invited Bob to Mongolia. We have hundreds of visitors from all over the world; would he like to come visit? Bob was reluctant. At sixty nine, there was anxiety about travelling alone, and his wife was unwell.

Five years passed, and a series of events began which, in hindsight, proved to be much more than mere coincidences. Missionary friends from Mongolia just “happened” to buy the property next to Bob’s, giving us an inkling that God was at work. More recently, Bob’s wife passed away—a main reason for his reluctance to travel. We reached out with our condolences and found that our friend had invited Bob to go with him to Mongolia. That was much more than an inkling of God being at work!

The day after Bob arrived, we had an unexpected call from a Mongolian couple looking for advice about their fruit trees. I told them it was not convenient for them to come that day, but they insisted, and we felt led to relent. Soon, a very expensive vehicle drove onto our farm. As owners of the town’s flour mill, this couple were possibly one of the richest families in the country. When they invited Bob, Marlene and me to their ranch for supper the next evening, our curiosity about God’s plan really peaked.

The next day, we went to their house and right away noticed a large telescope which, for some reason, seemed to excite Bob. The couple explained their belief that the stars play a big role in controlling our destinies. At that, Bob spoke up, and out poured an astounding wealth of information. Bob had a master’s degree in Astronomy! He explained how the alignment of stars actually connects to the biblical story and how, in reality, it all points to Jesus. Marlene and I just sat there and marveled at God’s plan for this couple, eight years in the making—Bob was totally the right person to share the Gospel with this couple!

Bob is now back in Idaho, and already talking about coming next year.

Shrewd as Snakes, Innocent as Doves

LAOS | By a worker in East Asia

“I have only three gifts,” Som told us, laughing. “Solving problems, reconciling people, and staying out of jail!”

Our new friend was only partly joking about that last gift. We were in Laos to attend our first meeting with the Asian Christians in this country to encourage them in making disciples who make disciples. There, we were witnessing the everyday life of the persecuted church.

Som pastors a small church that meets on his family’s land. Christians in Laos face hostility not only from the country’s rigid, old-style communist government but also from the Buddhist animists living all around them. In the past, Som’s father was imprisoned three times for his obedience to Christ, and had to divide and sell his property just to get out of jail. More recently, six of Som’s Christian co-workers were arrested for holding a worship service. Family and church friends are providing food for them in prison, but have no idea if or when they will be released. They do not receive any information from the police.

Life here is hard enough, even without religious persecution. In the fall of 2024, flash floods in the wake of Typhoon Yagi brought destruction to northern Laos, inundating villages and farmland and leaving residents sheltering on the roofs of houses and wading chest-deep through murky brown waters. Many families lost everything they owned, and countless businesses were destroyed along with crops and livestock. Relief efforts continue still, with national partners like Som helping to coordinate a response to this devastating situation by traveling to the hardest hit locations with emergency supplies, providing villagers with rice, clean water, blankets and other essentials.

Som supports himself by doing odd jobs that help support his ministry with the church. Despite all that he faces on a daily basis, his cheerfulness is irrepressible. As we drive along the rough, red dirt roads through small villages that overflow with barefoot children, Som is always smiling and joking, but his sharp eyes miss nothing; he is ever alert for danger. I think about what Jesus said, written in Matthew 10:16. Som and his fellow believers are shrewd as snakes, yet as innocent as doves.

Pray for believers in Laos to continue to be wise in the face of persecution, and for their joy to abound.

Daily Prayer Guide

June 2025

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
1 Multiply (Bruce Enns) GLOBAL	2 VR UKRAINE	3 Emerson Cardoso BRAZIL	4 Israel & Sandra Chavez-Plett MEXICO	5 B & C CENTRAL ASIA	6 André & Olga Pritzkau GERMANY	7 Lia EAST ASIA
8 Kyle & Danae Schmidt UGANDA	9 Wendy Eros JAPAN	10 B & A GLOBAL	11 Kailee Thiessen CANADA	12 Lavern Pratt PANAMA	13 Robert & Marlene Baerg MONGOLIA	14 George & Nicoleta LITHUANIA
15 Paul & Sara Raugust FRANCE	16 Rebecca Hiebert THAILAND	17 Juan & Maria SOUTH ASIA	18 Joanna & Jonathan Gutierrez PORTUGAL	19 Doug Hiebert SUB-SAHARAN AFRICA	20 Arun & Anjana CANADA	21 Johanna Neudorf GERMANY
22 Tomas & Melody Vidal MEXICO	23 Cynthia Friesen THAILAND	24 Cory & Masami Giesbrecht JAPAN	25 Carmen Owen THAILAND	26 CD NORTH AFRICA & MIDDLE EAST	27 Stacy Kuhns PERU	28 Sandra Fender THAILAND
29 Sean EAST ASIA	30 Benni & Franz Hermann GERMANY

together that the world may know Jesus church, she had never really heard or understood the Gospel. Since ALPHA, L has fallen in love with Jesus and became a Christian! Recently we were finally able to provide L with her first Bible. Pray for our new Catalyst Project, providing resources like bibles and other Christian literature for the students we disciple here at LCC International University. What a difference one Bible can make!”

How, then, can they call on the one they have not believed in? And how can they believe in the one of whom they have not heard? And how can they hear without someone preaching to them? ~ Romans 10:14

June 15 - 21

15 SUNDAY: PAUL & SARA RAUGUST

FRANCE

“Pray with us about the possibility of a new project in the junior high school working with youths on the margins. The vice principal has asked if we could help provide a mentorship program for students who are on the verge of dropping out—those who don’t fit in in a normal class setting, who are disruptive, and many of whom come from dysfunctional families and have previous records of causing trouble. In France, schools are typically closed to outsiders like us, with a very firm separation of religious beliefs from the public sphere. Yet somehow our testimony over the years has developed enough trust that they’ve invited us in; this is nothing less than a miracle!”

Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, “Whom shall I send? And who will go for us?” And I said, “Here am I. Send me!” ~ Isaiah 6:8

16 MONDAY: REBECCA HIEBERT

THAILAND

“Please pray for a group of pastors and leaders in a nearby nation who came to Thailand for training. They face persecution as they follow Jesus. Praise God for the relationships that are forming between our Thai conference and church leaders in the nations around us. Pray that these training times would not only provide theological training for those in the persecuted church, but that our Thai churches would also learn from the persecuted church.”

He is the one we proclaim, admonishing and teaching everyone with all wisdom, so that we may present everyone fully mature in Christ. To this end I strenuously contend with all the energy Christ so powerfully works in me. ~ Colossians 1:28, 29

17 TUESDAY: JUAN & MARIA

SOUTH ASIA

“To be honest, we’re really tired! May was the last month of the school year, and the workload at school was super intense and, at times, overwhelming. Praise

God that we’re able to keep serving and using the gifts he has given us. Pray for challenges Maria is facing, as she works with local leaders—the cultural differences sometimes create tension, both personally and professionally. Pray for me (Juan), as I am struggling with feeling drained and experiencing a depression that has returned after many years. Pray as we discern ministry; we sense that God wants to bring change, but we don’t yet have clarity on the way forward. We need his guidance and provision.”

In him was life, and that life was the light of all mankind. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it. ~ John 1:4, 5

18 WEDNESDAY: JOANNA & JONATHAN GUTIERREZ

PORTUGAL

“In the midst of much change and uncertainty, some might feel hopeless. Yet our Savior gives us a different song—a song of hope! He calls us to see what is not visible yet. Please pray for our local church as we walk forward, trusting in the One who builds his Church. May we surrender to his ways and rise up reflecting his light to the world around us. Would you also pray specifically for two young adults (and possibly others), who plan to be baptized this month.”

Behold, I am doing a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert. ~ Isaiah 43:19

19 THURSDAY: DOUG HIEBERT

SUB-SAHARAN AFRICA

“Please pray for Africa. There is much turmoil and much hardship, seemingly in increased measure. Congo continues to experience armed conflict; many people have been displaced and life is getting harder and harder. Wars and rumors of war are in other countries as well. Yet join me in praying, not just for peace, but for God’s kingdom to come in all its fullness: sufficiency, love, togetherness, justice, and a correct sense of identity. Pray for the African leaders I met with last month, who returned home with renewed vision to bring transformation to their people and countries. Pray the seed is not snatched away!”

My prayer is not that you take them out of the world but that you protect them from the evil one. They are not of the world, even as I am not of it. Sanctify them by the truth; your word is truth. As you sent me into the world, I have sent them into the world. ~ John 17:15-18

20 FRIDAY: ARUN & ANJANA

CANADA

“Our work permits are expiring, and we have been given a temporary extension to stay and work in Canada for one year until final decision is made on our application. Please pray for this. Kindly uphold us also as we meet and build intentional friendships with South Asians in the community. Pray especially for J, a young Punjabi immigrant, and for Mr. G and Mrs. N, a couple who are very close to us now, but who are still not open to the Gospel. Pray for new people to join our Saturday evening fellowships at Clearbrook MB Church.”

I pray that the eyes of your heart may be enlightened in order that you may know the hope to which he has called you, the riches of his glorious inheritance in his holy people, and his incomparably great power for us who believe.
~ Ephesians 1:18-19a

21 SATURDAY: JOHANNA NEUDORF

GERMANY

“Praise God for a completed discipleship training with eight young people from German churches! Pray that their transformational experience in cross-cultural mission would lead them to continued growth in their next steps, and that they would be a catalyst for more people to follow Jesus. Pray also for our church and leadership in Dortmund to follow the leading of the Holy Spirit in our all our plans and steps.”

Direct my footsteps according to your Word. ~ Psalm 119:133a

June 22 - 28

22 SUNDAY: TOMAS & MELODY VIDAL

MEXICO

“Please pray for us as we receive a youth group from California this month—that God would meet each one in a special way as they are away from familiarity, and that they would respond to him and continue to pursue him when they are back home. Pray for faith to follow the Lord even when challenges arise that cause them to doubt. May they put on the armor of God and advance to where he calls them. We also ask for prayer for those who are signed up for our discipleship program, which now begins in early July, and for those who are still deciding whether or not to come.”

Therefore, put on the full armor of God, so that when the day of evil comes, you may be able to stand your ground, and after you have done everything, to stand. ~ Ephesians 6:13

23 MONDAY: CYNTHIA FRIESEN

THAILAND

“Praise God for the amazing turnout of ninety-five people who attended the inspirational Southeast Asia Anabaptist Retreat in Hua Hin. Another recent highlight and privilege was to have my brother come to visit for a few days. Since then, I have been so grateful for this intentional time to restore and renew my soul.

Please pray for Maceo as he finishes school for this year, and pray for Nui and Aire as they continue to grow and lead in their house church plant with new believers.”

Yes, my soul, find rest in God; my hope comes from him. Truly he is my rock and my salvation; he is my fortress; I will not be shaken. ~ Psalm 62:5, 6

24 TUESDAY: CORY & MASAMI GIESBRECHT

JAPAN

“Praise the Lord that my (Masami’s) hairdresser, M, was recently baptized! I have been meeting with her for Bible studies for almost one year—thank you for your prayers! Please pray for her to be a person of peace, and that many will come to know Jesus through her. Pray also for our son, Noah, who will graduate from high school and move back to Canada for university soon.”

So then, just as you received Christ Jesus as Lord, continue to live your lives in him, rooted and built up in him, strengthened in the faith as you were taught, and overflowing with thankfulness. ~ Colossians 2:6, 7

25 WEDNESDAY: CARMEN OWEN

THAILAND

“Praise God for lives being transformed, from complete darkness to fullness of light in Jesus! Pray for the emerging church in the house of one man in the Naomi House area. He was once the community witch doctor, and is now the church host! Pray for those facing opposition for their decision to follow Jesus; may their steadfastness and courage draw others to trust in the living God. Pray for the ministries in Chiang Mai juvenile detention center, as all of the incarcerated girls are growing in faith in Jesus and discerning life after prison. Together we say, ‘May your Kingdom come, Lord!’”

Your throne, O God, will last for ever and ever; a scepter of justice will be the scepter of your kingdom. ~ Hebrews 1:8

26 THURSDAY: CD

NORTH AFRICA & MIDDLE EAST

“Please pray for wisdom in choosing a strategic location to live in this Middle Eastern country, so that I can learn the language effectively and be near a fellowship space. Also, please pray that God will send more workers to join the efforts here, following in the footsteps of those who have diligently paved the way for God’s work. Additionally, please pray for the continued growth of the Kingdom of God’s influence within the region. Our deep desire is to see more individuals, who have been confused about the true identity of King Jesus, receive a clear revelation of his glory, and a call to serve our Lord.”

Who will not fear you, Lord, and bring glory to your name? For you alone are holy. All nations will come and worship before you, for your righteous acts have been revealed. ~ Revelation 15:4

27 FRIDAY: STACY KUHNS

PERU

Pray for Stacy, working directly with the Peruvian MB Conference in leadership development of pastoral couples, women, singles, and youth. She also supports church planting and mission strategy, walking alongside church-planting couples and families as they fulfill the Great Commission in Peru.

Let us hold unswervingly to the hope we profess, for he who promised is faithful. ~ Hebrews 10:23

28 SATURDAY: SANDRA FENDER

THAILAND

“Praise God for the ministry of Naomi House! Please continue to pray for Siriwan and Wichian as they lead this ministry, and for a new house church they are launching in the house of a former witch doctor who has come to faith in Jesus! Pray also for two young ladies from the juvenile detention center that have now transitioned to Naomi house to be discipled and to learn vocational sewing skills.”

It is because of him that you are in Christ Jesus, who has become for us wisdom from God—that is, our righteousness, holiness and redemption. ~ 1 Corinthians 1:30

June 29 - 30

29 SUNDAY: SEAN

EAST ASIA

Pray for Sean, developing translation resources and training Bible translators online. He and his national partners envision a center for Bible translation that will reach the many minority people groups in this region that do not currently have the scriptures in their own language.

A man has joy by the answer of his mouth, and a word spoken in due season, how good it is! ~ Proverbs 15:23 (NKJV)

30 MONDAY: BENNI & FRANZI HERMANN

GERMANY

Pray for Benni and Franzi, serving on our church-planting team in Dortmund, Germany, where every third person in the city is an immigrant. Their vision is for the Church to become a community for everyone and a family for those without any family.

We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is fitting, because your faith grows exceedingly, and the love of every one of you all abounds toward each other... ~ 2 Thessalonians 1:3

REGIONAL SPOTLIGHT:

Central & South America

With hundreds of distinct ethnic groups coming from a variety of vibrant and rich cultural ancestries, Latin America is one of the most diverse regions in the world. Many countries, however, have struggled historically against corruption, violence, drug cartels, and human rights violations. In these places, a holistic ministry is crucial, communicating the Gospel among the marginalized of urban society and indigenous people groups facing poverty, religiosity and animistic beliefs.

Emerson Cardoso
Regional Team Leader for
Central & South America

Multiply workers are serving in Latin America (Colombia, Mexico, Panama, Peru, Brazil) and Lusophone (Portuguese speaking) countries in Europe and Africa, including Portugal, Mozambique and Angola. A multi-regional Latin America Expansion Team, under the direction of Regional Team Leader Emerson Cardoso, networks together with global MB churches and training institutions such as AMCOBIM (MB Mission Agency of Brazil), HEME AQUÍ (MB Mission Agency of Colombia), and Matthew Training Center (Multiply's discipleship training center in Mexico) to reach the lost and to equip missional leaders in Latin America and beyond.

Pray

- > For countries ravaged by violent political conflict and drug wars
- > For unity to be built between the local churches of each MB conference
- > For young leaders being discipled for evangelism and church-planting
- > For more indigenous leaders to be trained to reach their own people groups
- > For Regional Team Leader Emerson Cardoso and the Latin America Expansion Team

Explore people, projects, and stories at multiply.net/central-and-south-america

Receive the Daily Prayer Guide in your inbox.
Subscribe today at multiply.net/subscribe