To ensure their safety, we are using initials or an alias for long-term workers serving in restricted areas. Also, the names of their contacts in country are routinely changed. Please pray for their protection. Ask the Lord of the harvest to continue to show them favor as he works through them to transform communities among the least reached.

1 MONDAY: DANNY & CYNTHIA ASIRIT / THE PHILIPPINES

Please pray for this couple, serving alongside the MB church in Brookes Point, Palawan. Cynthia uses her biblical counseling background to facilitate spiritual healing, life skills training and soul care, while Danny leads various discipleship programs. Pray for them to help young people know Christ personally, heal from childhood trauma, and flourish in their family context.

It is written: "Those who were not told about him will see, and those who have not heard will understand." ~ Romans 15:21

2 TUESDAY: REBECCA HIEBERT / THAILAND

"The Thai team is hosting a regional Asia summit this year from June 1 to 5. Pray for unity, for God's Spirit to lead, and for everyone to be encouraged and spurred on toward love and good deeds. Pray for safe travels and good health for every delegate. After the summit a Japanese Christian will be coming to explore what it could look like to partner with Thai people in sharing the Gospel here. Please pray that God will open the right doors and connections."

*And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds, not giving up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching.
~ Hebrews 10:24, 25*

3 WEDNESDAY: JOHN & JENN JOHNSTONE / CANADA

"In May we hosted a group of First Nations young adults for a wellness retreat, teaching skills like healthy conflict resolution and cooking, while enjoying fishing and night dip at a nearby lake. I (Jenn) am personally going through training—as well as participating—in a prayer-led trauma workshop specifically for First Nations people. Once I am finished, I will be able to lead and train others. Not going to lie—it's been a lot, and brings up old wounds. We have also been helping out on a local reserve in tangible ways: cleaning, yard work, and just building relationships. Please pray for several camps coming up that will be held on the reserve, where John often speaks and encourages youth to praise God in ways that includes their culture."

The Spirit of the Sovereign Lord is on me, because the Lord has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim freedom for the captives and release from darkness for the prisoners. ~ Isaiah 61:1

4 THURSDAY: CORY & MASAMI GIESBRECHT / JAPAN

"During the regional Asia summit this year, please pray for inter-Asian cooperation and reconciliation. This is the first Asia-only gathering hosted by our global MB family, ICOMB. Pray for healing—there is a lot of unreconciled hurt left over from WW2 in Asia. Pray for our small team of five Japanese church members; may we be quickened by testimonies of persecution and faithfulness in Asia."

For we do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, of our affliction which occurred in Asia, that we were burdened excessively, beyond our strength, so that we despaired even of life. ~ 2 Corinthians 1:8

5 FRIDAY: SANDRA FENDER / THAILAND

Pray for Sandra, serving remotely to oversee the financial reporting and partnership development for the Chiang Mai Promise and Naomi House projects in Thailand. In North America, Sandra serves local churches in a rural community.

He is the one we proclaim, admonishing and teaching everyone with all wisdom, so that we may present everyone fully mature in Christ. To this end I strenuously contend with all the energy Christ so powerfully works in me. ~ Colossians 1:28, 29

6 SATURDAY: ISRAEL & SANDRA CHAVEZ-PLETT / MEXICO

"Praise God for the last couple of months of incredible connections as we visited friends, family, and supporting churches in Manitoba. It is so encouraging to share stories of what God is doing in Mexico, and to remember that we are part of such an amazing support network of churches and individuals. Praise God for safety in all our travels. As we return to Guadalajara, we shift gears into summer ministry. In June we start our three-week HADIME discipleship program. Pray for our participants, and our fantastic group of young leaders. May lives be transformed and relationships with Jesus deepened, as we serve and learn together."

All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, so that the servant of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work. ~ 2 Timothy 3:16, 17

7 SUNDAY: NASSER AL'QAHTANI / CANADA

"Please pray for us as we settle into our new home, taking time to rest and to build deeper relationship with the local community. This month, I will travel to the Philippines to honor former missionaries who served in Saudi Arabia and other Gulf nations, share stories of what the Lord is doing now in the Middle East, and help catalyze a movement of mobilization, equipping, and sending 10,000 workers from the Philippines to the Middle East."

However, I consider my life worth nothing to me; my only aim is to finish the race and complete the task the Lord Jesus has given me—the task of testifying to the good news of God's grace. ~ Acts 20:24

8 MONDAY: GEORGE & NICOLETA / LITHUANIA

“We are grateful to share that George’s young mentee, Y, recently led his mother in a prayer to receive the Lord. God has been at work in her heart for some time, especially since the passing of Y’s father. Please continue to pray for Y and his mother, as well as for our other Central Asian students as they finish this university year. Please pray for our upcoming trip to a mountainous region of Central Asia. Ask the Lord to guide this extensive journey as we connect with house churches and their leaders, serving alongside local teams across three countries by the end of June.”

May God be gracious to us and bless us and make his face shine on us—so that your ways may be known on earth, your salvation among all nations. ~ Psalm 67:1, 2

9 TUESDAY: ROBERT & MARLENE BAERG / MONGOLIA

“The busy season of farm life is upon us. Please pray that, in the midst of all the work, we will have balance in our lives and take time for rest and for investing in the workers and guests that we host. Pray also for discernment and direction as we look at potentially putting solar power on our land.”

May God be gracious to us and bless us and make his face shine on us—so that your ways may be known on earth, your salvation among all nations. ~ Psalm 67:1, 2

10 WEDNESDAY: CHASE LOVINS / NORTH AFRICA & MIDDLE EAST

Chase serves as project liaison for the Middle East & North Africa team, supporting ministry initiatives in this part of the world. Pray for the Gospel to be shared among the Muslim people, for believers to have courage in the face of persecution and pray for the logistical challenges of coordinating projects in this region.

And after you have suffered a little while, the God of all grace, who has called you to his eternal glory in Christ, will himself restore, confirm, strengthen, and establish you. ~ 1Peter 5:10

11 THURSDAY: ANDRÉ & OLGA PRITZKAU / GERMANY

“Praise God that He has been here long before us and is working in people’s hearts. Please pray as we are following up the Easter event with a MyLife workshop (similar to ALPHA), focusing on the individual’s life and leading to the Gospel from there. Thank you for your prayers.”

Be wise in the way you act toward outsiders; make the most of every opportunity. Let your conversation be always full of grace, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how to answer everyone. ~ Colossians 4:5, 6

12 FRIDAY: KYLE & DANAE SCHMIDT / UGANDA

“Please pray for us as we are hosting a church team from South Dakota in the first two weeks of June. They are a multi-generational team—the youngest is thirteen, the oldest is in her seventies. They will be serving at the King’s Kid School, doing life with students and teachers, and seeing what life is like for Ugandan families and how their home church can engage with us more in the future. Pray also for a college student who will be living here from June 14 to July 4, serving in the preschool classes while exploring what long-term mission as a teacher could look like.”

Jesus said, “Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these.” ~ Matthew 19:14

13 SATURDAY: B & A / GLOBAL

“Please pray as we are working with churches throughout the Lower Mainland of BC, preparing to welcome the World Cup as an opportunity for discipleship, hospitality, witness, and prayer. Pray that God would use his Bride in each host city to show love in courageous ways—before, during, and after this event is finished. May God’s people pray boldly, and watch in awe as the Lord moves.”

Now, Lord ... enable your servants to speak your word with great boldness. Stretch out your hand to heal and perform signs and wonders through the name of your holy servant Jesus. ~ Acts 4:29b, 30

14 SUNDAY: SEAN EAST / ASIA

“Please continue to lift up those working in Bible translation. Pray especially for the ‘newbies’ that are just starting out. They need training, prayer partners, churches to support them, creative ways to access remote language communities, a lot of brain power and persistence to learn unwritten languages, big hearts, and a lot of flexibility and humility! Pray especially for their faith journey, because their faith will for sure be tested. And thank God with us that they (like us) have a Father who deeply loves them and the people they are wanting to reach; He is walking with them, pointing the way.”

May the God who gives endurance and encouragement give you the same attitude of mind toward each other that Christ Jesus had, so that with one mind and one voice you may glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. ~ Romans 15:5, 6

15 MONDAY: BENNI & FRANZI HERMANN / GERMANY

What the Enemy Meant for Evil

PANAMA / By Einer Zuluaga

For years, our indigenous Wounaan disciples in Panama dreamed of a mission trip to Colombia, where about 500 Wounaan live who have not yet been reached with the Gospel. When this trip finally happened, we knew we would face challenges in the jungle—transportation difficulties, close proximity to guerrilla drug traffickers, and opposition from traditional Animistic tribal leaders.

Initially, we headed directly to the jungle village of Buena Vista. When we arrived, there was no one there!

Initially, we headed directly to the jungle village of Buena Vista. When we arrived, there was no one there! A young Wounaan man living there had committed suicide—the eighth that year—and community leaders decided to relocate all the inhabitants so that the local witch doctors could perform an exorcism of the village, going house to house to cast out the evil spirits inducing people to commit suicide.

It was discouraging, but what the Enemy meant for evil, God turned into a great good. Diverting to the town of Balsalito, we found a small group of believers. They met with us over four days, eager to be mentored in discipleship so that they could better spread the Gospel. We rejoiced at how God had led us to them.

We left to continue our a six-hour journey back to Buena Vista, to find that the witch doctors had finished their cleansing rituals and the villagers were back. That evening, we met privately with a small group of brothers and sisters, and read the Scriptures together. The next day was spent ministering one-on-one to the leaders of this community—the Wounaan of Panama ministering to the Wounaan of Colombia. It was all so beautiful!

Until we received some horrible news: a young man, barely nineteen, had attempted suicide. We rushed to see what we could do, but he had poisoned himself and was already foaming at the mouth and convulsing on the ground. His parents stood by, helplessly.

“Listen!” we told them urgently. “You must take your son to the hospital in Pizarro!”

“How?” they asked, in despair. “The municipality is four hours away. We have no money for gas.”

Quickly, we spoke with the village leader. “Let us help!” we told him. “Our team will give what we have for expenses—but he needs to get to the hospital now!”

It was agreed, and we were relieved to see the young man taken away to be treated. Would it be too late for him? There was little time for worrying; God had more for us to do.

That evening, young people began to arrive—literally by the boatload! They came from both this community and also from other communities nearby, some travelling two to three hours up river in small rowboats. These young people, some as young as fourteen, were determined to meet their Wounaan brothers from Panama, and hear the Word of the Lord. That night, they played guitar and sang together, so beautifully that it moved our hearts.

“We are like prisoners,” they explained. “He curses us, he claims to be God, he demands that we renounce our faith.”

Still, we could not stop thinking about the boy who took poison. The next day, we decided to leave for the municipality hospital. We did not understand the danger—guerrillas had decreed an armed strike, with terrorists attacking everyone on the rivers! Somehow, we travelled unharmed. Again, the Enemy was thwarted.

The community was in lockdown, but the young man’s parents found us. “It is a miracle he survived!” they said. “There are not even any internal injuries from the acid he swallowed!” At every turn, we saw the power of our God.

In the days that followed, some of the Wounaan believers in the village came to talk with us. They were furtive—the local witchdoctor had threatened them with spells if they approached Christians.

“We are like prisoners,” they explained. “He curses us, he claims to be God, he demands that we renounce our faith. We are so tired! Animism brings only destruction and death, and we long to be free from fear!”

We began to understand that the source of the pervasive anxiety and depression that drove their young people to suicide. While we prayed with them, they expressed their desire to experience walking with God. That day, some of the Wounaan made a decision to embrace the faith, saying that they were willing to pay the price of walking with Christ. Then, the parents of the young man who had taken poison did the same.

Please continue to pray for us! As we plan for another trip to Colombia in July, we are confident that God will continue to be victorious.

vision is for the Church to become a community for everyone and a family for those without any family.

But thanks be to God, who always leads us as captives in Christ's triumphal procession and uses us to spread the aroma of the knowledge of him everywhere. ~ 2 Corinthians 2:14

Pray for the Wounaan believers in Colombia as they develop partnerships with the Wounaan in Panama. May God multiply their numbers and increase their faith.”

The Lord makes firm the steps of the one who delights in him. ~ Psalm 37:23

REGIONAL SPOTLIGHT:

Europe

Europe has had a longer, more sustained exposure to Christianity than any other continent, yet an increasingly secular worldview perceives the Gospel as outdated and irrelevant. Despite this, global workers in Austria, Germany, France, Portugal, Lithuania, Ukraine and other Eastern European countries are encountering many young people with a deep, spiritual hunger for a personal faith experience. Although a growing population of North African immigrants has led to many societies becoming increasingly polarized between secularism and Islam, this has also opened the door for the Church to reach this Diaspora with a holistic presentation of the Gospel.

Pray

- > For an end to the war in Ukraine and for those who are displaced and suffering
- > For churches to be welcoming and equipped to care for refugees
- > For those impacted by the severe economic crisis in Europe
- > For Regional Team Leader Johann Matthies, overseeing European church planting, short-term mission, and resourcing churches to respond to the many social and humanitarian crises facing this region
