To ensure their safety, we are using initials or an alias for long-term workers serving in restricted areas. Also, the names of their contacts in country are routinely changed. Please pray for their protection. Ask the Lord of the harvest to continue to show them favor as he works through them to transform communities among the least reached.

March 1 - 7

1 SUNDAY: MULTIPLY (BRUCE ENNS)

GLOBAL

Pray for the Multiply Board and for our organization as a whole to have continued unity and vision as we send disciple makers, equip missional leaders, and strengthen global partnerships together, that the world would know Jesus.

Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light.
~ Matthew 11:28-30

2 MONDAY: CECIL & TRACY RAMOS

THAILAND

“In the beginning of this month we are in the Northeast of Thailand to be part of discipleship training with Laotian pastors. Mid-March, we will receive two weeks of intensive training focused on emotional, practical, and spiritual preparation for our next season in North America, connecting with supporting churches. Then, for one week at the end of the month, we will be hosting my mom! We look forward to showing her our lives and ministry here, and having the house smell like Mexican beans, rice, and enchiladas!”

In him was life, and that life was the light of all mankind. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it. ~ John 1:4, 5

3 TUESDAY: JOHN & JENN JOHNSTONE

CANADA

“In February, we had an amazing weekend of hosting young adults from Inner Hope. There was one beautiful, spontaneous moment of prayer from a young man who is currently homeless. Please pray for our ministry with these young adults, and for even deeper connections with local communities. Pray also as we trust God for provision on a monthly basis.”

And he has committed to us the message of reconciliation. We are therefore Christ's ambassadors, as though God were making his appeal through us.
~ 2 Corinthians 5:19b, 20a

4 WEDNESDAY: PABLO & MARICELA CHAVEZ

PERU

“Back in Peru, we are doing well—although sweating profusely, swatting mosquitoes and adding more scorpions to our collection! Please pray for continued favor with the churches, and for wisdom as we walk alongside them to help meet the needs of those in their community. Pray for Joshua and Samuel to readapt into Spanish and school, and for Isaac, back in the U.S., as he navigates post-secondary decisions. May our little house—grey, dusty, windowless—transform into a welcoming refuge for our family and for our brothers and sisters here.”

Again Jesus said, “Peace be with you! As the Father has sent me, I am sending you.” ~ John 20:21

5 THURSDAY: JEN SCHMIDT

MEXICO

“This is a planning month, as we are preparing for a number of different short-term teams coming from Canada and the USA in the spring. We are also planning for our next six-month HADIME discipleship program. Pray for Spirit-filled and Spirit-guided plans as we move forward with the many different opportunities for ministry both with our local churches and with the teams that come.”

As long as it is day, we must do the works of him who sent me. ~ John 9:4

6 FRIDAY: MAXYM & ANYA OLIFEROVSKI

UKRAINE

“Please pray for Spring to come soon—it has been a long winter of cold and blackouts, as Russia weaponizes the weather against Ukraine. Pray for the expansion of our Trauma Retreat Center in Western Ukraine, as we add more facilities to accommodate family retreats and camps. May we find good suppliers and workers, and get the work done in time for summer camps. Pray for us as a couple, as we hope to take a time of personal rest and renewal in Europe this May.”

Therefore, put on the full armor of God, so that when the day of evil comes, you may be able to stand your ground, and after you have done everything, to stand. ~ Ephesians 6:13

7 SATURDAY: WANCHAI (OZZ) & SARA FAST KUMROD

THAILAND

“We thank God for so many answered prayers! Praise God for the recent Multiply Asia gathering in Japan, meeting with other global workers and pastors to share stories about our lives and ministry. Praise God also for a new house church in Kiew La Noi. We are training the new believers in discipleship tools, and hope to see two new house churches established this month.”

May God be gracious to us and bless us and make his face shine on us—so that your ways may be known on earth, your salvation among all nations.
~ Psalm 67:1, 2

March 8 - 14

8 SUNDAY: ANDREW B

MIDDLE EAST, NORTH AFRICA

Andrew serves as part of Multiply's River of Life team, a network of indigenously led ministries across the Middle East and North Africa. Pray for his work alongside national and cross-cultural leaders to share the Gospel and for clear direction as he prepares for long-term service among Muslim communities.

Let us hold unwaveringly to the hope we profess, for he who promised is faithful. And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds. ~ Hebrews 10:23, 24

9 MONDAY: AURÉLIE HIRSCHLER

BURUNDI

"Please pray for an upcoming strategic school board meeting with our partners from both Canada and Germany. Pray for vision and for unity; we desperately need the local leadership of the school to lean more into school management. Pray for wisdom; it may be that the school needs to be given its independence. Please pray for a spirit of mutuality and for decisions that will most glorify God and benefit the students."

My goal is that they may be encouraged in heart and united in love, so that they may have the full riches of complete understanding, in order that they may know the mystery of God, namely, Christ, in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge. ~ Colossians 2:2, 3

10 TUESDAY: SEAN & AMY HILDEBRAND

UGANDA

"Praise God for our time in Canada visiting our supporters, and for a recent retreat that brought rest and spiritual rejuvenation. Please pray for deepening Ugandan partnerships, continued perseverance in learning the Luganda language, and for the health of our new baby and for Amy."

That is why we labor and strive, because we have put our hope in the living God, who is the Savior of all people, and especially of those who believe. ~ 1 Timothy 4:10

11 WEDNESDAY: EINER & GIRLESA ZULUAGA

PANAMA

"Praise God for fruit born from the first Wounaan missionary team to launch from Panama into Colombia. This trip marked an important milestone in the growing partnership between the Wounaan of Panama and Colombia—one people, one nation, united by culture and now, increasingly, by faith. Pray for God to bring light into places long overshadowed by animism and fear. May he continue to transform lives, one village at a time!"

Even the darkness will not be dark to you; the night will shine like the day, for darkness is as light to you. ~ Psalm 139:12

12 THURSDAY: DANNY & CYNTHIA ASIRIT

THE PHILIPPINES

"Praise God that we have launched into mission here in Brooke's Point, helping others to receive the Gospel, be discipled, and grow in faith in Jesus Christ. Pray for God's protection, provision, and guidance of this community, especially families facing hardship and poverty. Pray that God would open doors for Bible studies in schools, homes, and public spaces. Pray for healing, reconciliation, and peace within families and relationships, and for those battling despair, mental health struggles, and addiction—especially the youth—and that they would encounter God's hope, love, and freedom."

You are worthy, our Lord and God, to receive glory and honor and power, for you created all things, and by your will they were created and have their being. ~ Revelation 4:11

BRAZIL

"Please pray as we prepare for travelling to Canada to attend the Ontario MB conference gathering. This month we are also in Amsterdam with Mennonite Central Committee, invited to be mission representatives for their event. Please pray for me—my graduate studies are very demanding; doing this, ministry, and life with a new baby means that we are incredibly busy!"

So then, just as you received Christ Jesus as Lord, continue to live your lives in him, rooted and built up in him, strengthened in the faith as you were taught, and overflowing with thankfulness. ~ Colossians 2:6, 7

14 SATURDAY: JAN H

MIDDLE EAST & NORTH AFRICA

"Please pray for my continued learning of the Arabic language, as I continue to prepare for ministry in my target country. I am praying about potentially traveling there for a short stint this spring or summer; it has been a year-and-a-half since I was there last. Many workers have come and gone in that time, so it feels like it would be helpful to reconnect with people and discern where future ministry will take me—which city, which team, etc."

May the favor of the Lord our God rest on us; establish the work of our hands for us—yes, establish the work of our hands. ~ Psalm 90:17

Becoming the Prayers that We Pray

EUROPE / CENTRAL ASIA | By A&R

When Turks look at Christians, they don't think good thoughts. They think about Turkish history, Constantine, the Crusades. They think Christians only want to conquer, divide and destroy. The reputation of the Church has been, for them, stained and soiled.

Like dirty laundry.

So, when the local church we partnered with opened a free laundromat, it was a way to be the hands and feet of Jesus to a community that had little reason to trust Christians. Our national partner who pastors this church had a dream to reach out to refugees in our city, and saw that there was a practical need for accessible laundry facilities—not just for comfort, but to help prevent the spread of disease.

The free laundromat facility actually got air time on local television: “Hey look, these Christians are caring for Muslims, the poor, refugees. Whoever wants to, can go and get their laundry done for free!”

People started lining up, first thing in the morning. That laundromat washed over 100 loads a day, six days a week. Even while customers waited to drop off their clothes and linens, some were skeptical; no one does anything for free in this city. It is known for its thriftiness, full of people who haggle to get a good bargain. In fact, it has been a center of business for over 6000 years! This city was the first trading post on the Silk Road. In the northern part of the city, archaeologists actually found clay tablets with some of the earliest samples of literacy. They were grocery lists.

A free laundromat was our way to break the stereotype that Central Asian Muslims have of those who follow Jesus. Our tourism business was meant to do that, too—employing locals, contributing to the local economy. It also allowed us to maintain a long-term visa in a country that was once a thriving center of first century Christianity.

We first went to that country over twelve years ago. Over those years, we saw people come to faith, including some of the employees in our tourism business. We baptized whole families. We had a thriving church of seventy people. Yeah, seventy believers in a city with two million people may seem like a pretty low percentage, but God is in the business of multiplication.

Today, we are trusting Him to do that, with or without us. Because in 2025, we had to leave.

Leaving Central Asia was painful, especially for our kids. It was our home for over twelve years; it felt like home the minute we first stepped off the airplane and onto the tarmac, you know? When we were told that we were going to be deported and never be able to set foot in this country again, our family was devastated. Devastated, but not surprised. Heartbroken, but not despairing. Although we were never given a clear reason as to why we had to leave, we know that we were deported for being Christians, for telling others about our Savior, for working with the church.

It was one thing to pray from a distance; it was a whole different reality to be with those that we had interceded for, to actually become the prayers that we were praying.

We lost the country, but not the vision. We always had a vision to reach Muslims, disciple new believers and raise up national church leaders to plant churches. We were praying for this long before we ever launched into Central Asia. It was one thing to pray from a distance; it was a whole different reality to be with those that we had interceded for, to actually become the prayers that we were praying. That presence, that incarnating of the love of God, that's what actually brings transformation in people's lives—being the hands and feet of Jesus on the street, in coffee shops, in churches, in our business, in our home.

It was still our mission; it was still our calling. We still felt sent—but where?

Everything was happening so quickly, but we could not let prayer be rushed. So many people were praying with us, praying for God to make clear this next stage of mission. Together with our friends and other believers, we discerned his leading: to relocate to an island in the Mediterranean, just off the coast of our target country.

And so, here we are—still on mission. We continue to fulfill our calling, serving church planting initiatives among the Turkish-speaking diaspora, hosting global workers and pastors from our original location, raising up national church leaders to reach the Muslim people group with the good news of Jesus Christ. God is still at work, and we are still eager to respond to the invitation to be his co-laborers.

The island does not quite feel like home; not yet. But Jesus is here, and home is wherever he takes us.

PRAY

Pray for this family as they face the challenges of ministry in a new context.

March 15 - 21

15 SUNDAY: A & R

EUROPE & CENTRAL ASIA

Having been denied a visa after serving since 2012, this couple is now based off the coast of their previous target country, serving church planting initiatives among the Turkish-speaking diaspora, hosting global workers and national pastors, and raising up national church leaders to reach the Muslim people group with the good news of Jesus Christ.

Whether you turn to the right or to the left, your ears will hear a voice behind you, saying, "This is the way; walk in it." ~ Isaiah 30:21

16 MONDAY: TRAVIS JOST

BURUNDI

"Please pray for Pastor Samuel and me as we continue to teach about successful discipleship and the community impact of the Church. We want to encourage the people in Bujumbura to see that local change is possible. One participant, realizing the importance of consulting and empowering others rather than imposing external solutions, spoke of the community needing to view development projects as their own. I am blessed that they would share so openly with one another about their problems and possible solutions. We all have something to share and to learn. Together we are seeing the communities around us in a different light."

You are the light of the world. A town built on a hill cannot be hidden. Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a bowl. Instead they put it on its stand, and it gives light to everyone in the house. ~ Matthew 5:14, 15

17 TUESDAY: DENIS & ALBINA NIKITIN

CANADA

Denis & Albina Nikitin are reaching Ukrainian and Slavic newcomers with the good news of Jesus. As a couple, they have vision to help isolated individuals and families integrate not only into their new culture, but into a multi-ethnic church plant of Slavic, Ukrainian and established Canadian families in Winnipeg.

Come, you who are blessed by my Father; take your inheritance, the kingdom prepared for you since the creation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in... ~ Matthew 25:35-37

18 WEDNESDAY: LIAM & LINDSAY BULL

CANADA

"Please pray for discernment and wisdom as we seek to determine what our next steps in ministry will look like this year. Pray that God would continue to move both in our local community and in a local church congregation, as we lead ongoing prayer walks through our neighborhood. Pray for us as we continue reaching out to new immigrants, and for new connections in the English conversation classes. Pray also for us to continue to trust God for our monthly provision."

It is because of him that you are in Christ Jesus, who has become for us wisdom from God—that is, our righteousness, holiness and redemption. ~ 1 Corinthians 1:30

19 THURSDAY: ELEAZAR & SHAILA DIAZ-ORTIZ

MEXICO

"Please continue to pray for a family in our church, especially for Fabian's sister—she is in a very dark place, and we've been praying for God to rescue her. Some of the marriages in our church are really struggling. Please pray for the ALPHA marriage course we began doing this month. And pray also that this may be the year that God leads us to a new place big enough to house our growing congregation."

Preach the word; be prepared in season and out of season; correct, rebuke and encourage—with great patience and careful instruction. ~ 2 Timothy 4:2

20 FRIDAY: KYLA SINCLAIR-PETERS

CANADA

"We are in our regular rhythms of drop-in, open gym events for basketball and volleyball, with around forty kids attending each Monday. Praise God and please pray for our Wednesday evening discipleship group where we cook together, play games, and talk about life with around ten teenagers. Pray also for the Thursday after-school drop-in for middle schoolers, where we have food, games, and a Bible story. Pray for the upcoming planning that will take place in April, as we prepare for our summer soccer league."

People won't be saying, "Look! Here it is!" or "There it is!" because now the kingdom of God is among you." ~ Luke 17:21 (ISV)

21 SATURDAY: SARAH & CHRISTIAN SMUTNY

AUSTRIA

"I have been very blessed to be able to be on this twelve-week sabbatical. Praise God for time and space to continue to hear from him, to rest, and to renew vision for future ministry. Pray that this time would serve to also strengthen even more the relationship between me and Christian—our rhythms and life routines during this, our first year of marriage."

Who will not fear you, Lord, and bring glory to your name? For you alone are holy. All nations will come and worship before you, for your righteous acts have been revealed. ~ Revelation 15:4

March 22 - 28

22 SUNDAY: GEDIMINAS & KRISTINA DAILYDE LITHUANIA

“There is no end to our thanking God for answered prayers regarding the children’s ministry. This ministry is gaining more clarity and structure and, most importantly, hearts that are burning to serve. Please pray as we seek to disciple those who took the ALPHA course; pray that God would give the best ways to deepen their understanding and strengthen their faith. Pray also as we continue to search for new premises to house our growing church.”

*May your deeds be shown to your servants, your splendor to their children.
~ Psalm 90:16*

23 MONDAY: WALTER & INA REIMER GERMANY

Pray for this couple, leading a church-planting team in Dortmund, with a focus on community outreach among new immigrants. Pray for their community outreach and ongoing work with refugees in their region.

Their responsibility is to equip God’s people to do his work and build up the church, the body of Christ. ~ Ephesians 4:12 (NLT)

24 TUESDAY: JEREMY & ADRIENNE PENNER THAILAND

“Please continue to pray as we seek to follow up with the over 10,000 people who heard the Gospel message during our Christmas outreaches. Every single person at each of these events is a friend, a neighbor, a brother, a sister, or a co-worker connected to one of our Myanmar churches; a link in a chain of relationships of those called to come closer to their Creator.”

The whole earth is filled with awe at your wonders; where morning dawns, where evening fades, you call forth songs of joy. ~ Psalm 65:8

25 WEDNESDAY: DAVID & SARAH SOUTH ASIA

“The church in this region continues to grow. We receive regular reports of baptisms, despite growing political pressure and opposition. Anti-conversion laws carry the threat of significant jail terms, yet believers are still sharing their faith, and people are encountering Jesus and putting their trust in him. Over the last few years, two of our key national partners have been building a house with a basement that can be used to host church gatherings safely. Their current church building is too small, with people standing outside. Please pray for this venture, and for both protection and boldness of believers.”

Now, Lord, consider their threats and enable your servants to speak your word with great boldness. Stretch out your hand to heal and perform signs and wonders through the name of your holy servant Jesus. ~ Acts 4:29, 30

26 THURSDAY: JOHANN MATTHIES EUROPE

Pray for Johann in his role as Multiply’s Regional Team Leader for Europe and Central Asia. Pray for his partnership with ICOMB (International Community of Mennonite Brethren), mobilizing European partners, churches, and schools for world mission, and resourcing Multiply workers and projects within this combined region.

But rise and stand upon your feet; for I have appeared to you for this purpose, to appoint you to serve and bear witness to the things in which you have seen me and to those in which I will appear to you. ~ Acts 26:16 (RSV)

27 FRIDAY: NATE & KRISTIN CANADA

“Please pray for a few specific people that have shown some fruit and transformation, but—like seeds planted in rocky soil or among thorns—they are struggling and turning back to old ways. Pray for others who have been exploring faith and making efforts to leave behind addiction, but continue to be dragged back into that life. Pray for them, and pray for us to remain faithful and hopeful. May we continue to seek God and be obedient to the assignments ahead.”

He turned the desert into pools of water and the parched ground into flowing springs; there he brought the hungry to live, and they founded a city where they could settle. They sowed fields and planted vineyards that yielded a fruitful harvest... ~ Psalm 107:35-37

28 SATURDAY: MARCELA & DAVID FRANCE

“We are so grateful to God for the time we had in Uruguay at the end of December and beginning of January. It was such a blessing to spend meaningful time with family, friends, and churches there. We are also thankful for our team retreat in February—it was a special time of praying, playing, eating, and growing closer to God together. Please pray for Kids Club. Every Wednesday morning during March we are hosting a club where we are sharing about Jesus’ life, death, and resurrection with children from the neighborhood where we serve. Please also pray for our neighbors and friends who are observing Ramadan this month. Pray that God would reveal himself to them and that he would give us opportunities and openness to share our faith with them.”

We who have fled to take hold of the hope set before us may be greatly encouraged. We have this hope as an anchor for the soul, firm and secure.
~ Hebrews 6:18b, 19

March 29 - 31

29 SUNDAY: RUSS & MARJORIE

FRANCE

“We sense a new season coming for the church—the Evangelical Protestant Church of Sète and the Thau Bassin (yup, that’s our official name!). Please pray that we will be especially attentive to how God is leading. Pray also as we continue to cultivate community life through a variety of rhythms: a film Sunday (with discussion afterward), a worship and testimonies Sunday, and monthly potlucks on the last Sunday of each month (today).”

Let the message of Christ dwell among you richly as you teach and admonish one another with all wisdom. ~ Colossians 3:16

30 MONDAY: ALEX & CARLA SUDERMAN

GERMANY

“We are moving forward with a new church plant, Neues Leben Dortmund (New Life Dortmund), with the vision of making disciples of Jesus. At the same time, we are developing a new album for The Pickaxe Project. This music engages postmodern longings for purpose, community, and justice, while honestly grappling with the complex history of Christianity in Germany. Please pray that we would stay rooted in the vision of Isaiah, pointing to a messianic community that finds healing and restoration in Jesus Christ. Pray for many meaningful Gospel conversations as we partner with local churches in various cities over the coming months while performing music.”

Teach me your way, Lord, that I may rely on your faithfulness; give me an undivided heart, that I may fear your name. ~ Psalm 86:11

31 TUESDAY: HEINRICH REMPEL

GERMANY

Pray for Heinrich in his role as the Director of Operations in the European Multiply office, and for his mentoring and coaching of church planters and missionaries in Europe and Central Asia.

I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for all people, for kings and all who are in high positions, that we may lead a peaceful and quiet life, godly and dignified in every way. ~ 1 Timothy 2:1-2

REGIONAL SPOTLIGHT:

Middle East & North Africa

Multiply’s partnerships with national leaders in this region require us to have restricted communication. Although believers are sharing the Gospel, discipling new believers, and developing faith communities, their witness is often violently opposed, and following Jesus comes at great personal cost. Evangelism through social media reaches thousands, and a growing network of house churches helps connect seekers with believers who can build friendships, and introduce them to the Gospel. Our team disciples, resources, and equips new believers to be on mission in their own communities and become the next generation of national leaders in their country.

Nasser al'Qahtani
Regional Team Leader

Pray

- > For new believers experiencing rejection and persecution in this region
- > For River of Life ministries, a network of indigenously led ministries across the Middle East and North Africa that is shepherding local churches, equipping believers for evangelism and discipleship, and leveraging online social media platforms to bring the Gospel to their own people
- > For Regional Team Leader, Nasser al'Qahtani, training up Christians in North America and beyond in effective outreach to Muslims
- > For more workers to be called into ministry in this challenging context
